

ATTACKS WILSON PEACE

By International News Service.
Washington, Dec. 21. — The task of the peace conference is to make peace with Germany. All other problems "having to do with issues that at this time are vague or unknown" should go over for future discussion.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, who will be majority leader, said he would not support the Senate for ratification, unless the peace conference was held during this decade today.

Senator Lodge singled out five of the 14 points of the peace program which he said should not be considered by the peace conference and should not be dealt with in the treaty.

The points are:

- 1—The President's first point relating to secret diplomacy;
- 2—The second point, dealing with freedom of the seas;
- 3—The third point referring to the removal of economic barriers;
- 4—The fourth point, declaring for a reduction of armaments;
- 5—The fifth point, referring to the organization of a League of Nations.

The definite suggestion that the peace conference should be held at least greatly altered, if it came to the Senate carrying provisions for the League of Nations, was considered by the Senate.

HYPNOTIC ACTION DESIRED.

The American people desire a prompt action on peace with Germany which will bring about the cessation of hostilities without bloodshed.

"The attempt to attach the provision for an effective League of Nations to the treaty of peace now making its way through Congress would be to launch the nation upon a course of boundless discussion, the conclusion of which would depend solely upon the force of opinion and would bring no definite result."

If the attempt was successful and the League of Nations were the power that I believe it would be, I am sure that about which I have ventured to say
